

THE LINEAGE OF THE NOLDOR Compiled by Scott McMahan
 Version 1.1 November, 1993

This chart is intended to show who is descended from whom among the Noldor of Middle-Earth. It tries to keep generations together in the same plane (although this fails in some cases simply to fit everything onto a page) and tries to clearly show who is related to whom. Layout reflects the most visually easy to read way of arranging the four (or so) families here, and does not respect age, order of birth, or anything a normal genealogy would.

Edain of major importance to the Noldor are included (Tuor, Beren) but the original chart from which this was based also included the houses of the Edain.

LEGEND:
 a vertical line means 'descended from'
 = means married
 a dashed line means uncertainty
